What we do

How does Oak Motors Inc. protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Oak Motors Inc. collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Apply for a loan online, in person or over the phone.
- Share personal, financial, or employment information with us in connection with your loan application or in the credit approval process.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

There is no change to the joint account holder's sharing. The joint account holder would have to request sharing be limited also.
